

Miss May Wirth, famous equestrienne, congratulating "Pop" Geers on his victory after he had driven Sarnardo to a new world's pacing record for one mile in the harness races at Aurora, Ill.

Pacific & Atlantic.

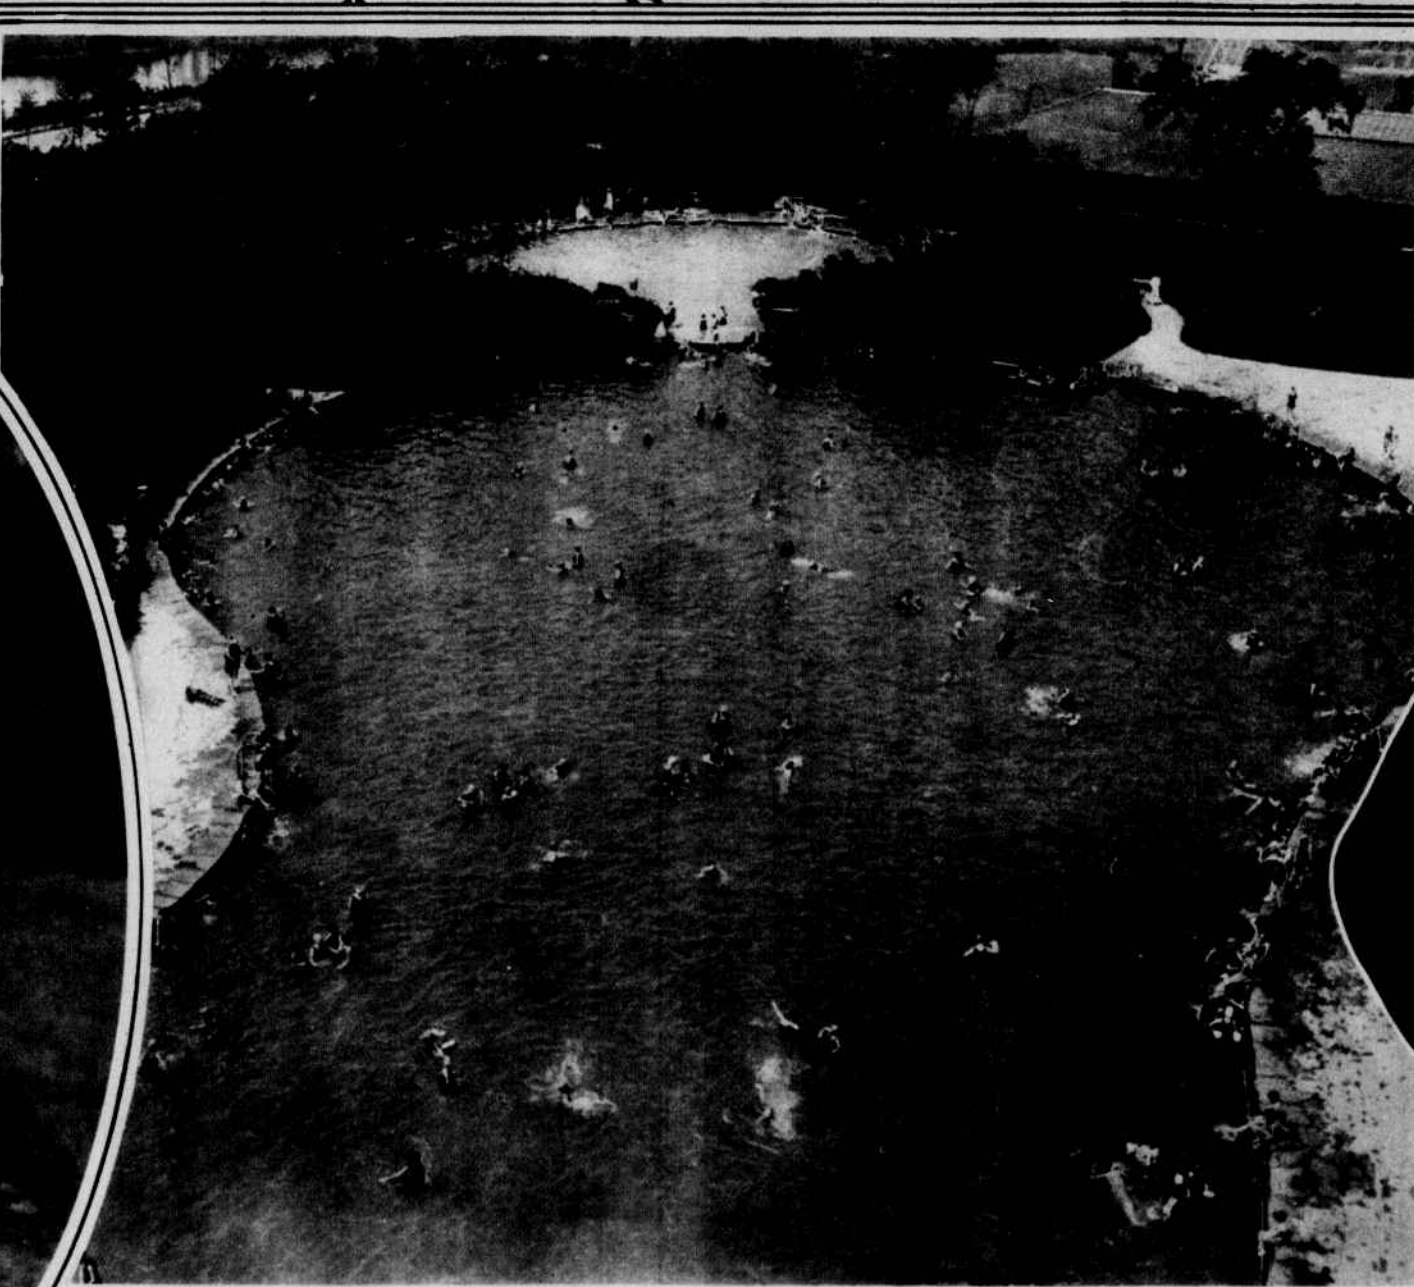

The joys of a movie photographer—a thrilling moment in a flying exhibition at Bolling Field aviation station, when a small scout plane suddenly swooped toward the ground, barely missing a battery of camera men industriously cranking the instruments recording their own narrow escape.

Harris & Ewing.

Above—Miss Margaret Steward of New York, a prominent member of the summer colony, on the links at Bar Harbor, Me.

Underwood & Underwood.

Chicago's largest municipal swimming pool, surrounded by beautiful shrubbery, in Columbus Park, on the West Side, is the nearest approach to the "swimmin' hole" of old, and is free to all.

Underwood & Underwood.

This prize winning Mexican Chihuahua weighs less than a pound and is owned by Mrs. Harry S. Peaster of Philadelphia. The photo shows its usual mode of travel in the owner's handbag.

Pacific & Atlantic.

At Right—Robert Mantell, eminent Shakespearean actor, paying a tribute to the memory of Edwin Booth at the presentation of Booth's portrait to the Rotary Clubs of America by E. F. Albee at the Hotel Astor. The portrait will be hung in the Shakespeare Art Gallery at Stratford-on-Avon.

Pacific & Atlantic.

An Irish farm woman in Limerick taking her milk to the creamery through the barricades of the warring factions.

International.